

DM-
3 October 1960

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Present: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Mr. Bissell, Mr. Amory, Colonel White, Mr. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Helms, Mr. Barnes,
Mr. Sheldon, Mr. Kent, [REDACTED]

25X1

MR. DULLES:

a. Noted an article in yesterday's Washington Post on the Berlin tunnel, and commented this was the first time he had seen mention of [REDACTED] in the public media. He said this of course might be a controlled leak and asked Mr. Helms to speak to [REDACTED] about this. The Director went on to say that with [REDACTED] now public knowledge, he felt more use can be made in our propaganda activities of the information gained from this operation.

25X1

25X1

25X1

b. Commented notwithstanding the situations in Cuba, Laos, and the Congo, he felt that Berlin is probably about as serious as any problem we now have, and asked if there is anything else the Agency should be doing. Action: DD/P

c. Noted that General Maxwell Taylor had called on him on Friday, 30 September, and, with General Taylor's permission, a record of the conversation was made. The Director said in brief that General Taylor had advised that a man by the name of [REDACTED]

25X1

25X1

[REDACTED]

after the meeting.

d. Noted he had not yet seen the alleged exchange of letters between [REDACTED] and asked DD/P to again query [REDACTED]

25X1

25X1